About the Company

ZKDIGIMAX is a new digital transformation platform company that comes from a joint venture company between PT Digital Mediatama Maxima Tbk ("DMMX") - an Indonesian public listed company focused on digital cloud advertising, and ZKTeco CO. LTD, a Chinese public listed company focused on biometric verification in security and time management solutions. ZKDIGIMAX strives to provide businesses end-to-end solutions, not only in digital cloud advertising, all biometric, computer vision hardware and SaaS software solutions but also in introducing a unique business model to transform retail, quick-service restaurants, offices, and buildings into a digitalized environment.

Our solution will help business owners focus more on their core business to achieve their growth potential, as all their digital needs are handled by us, not only for hardware and software but also managed service and maintenance solutions. ZKDIGIMAX provides a comprehensive total solution for the retail and quick service restaurant industries, from digital signage to AI business analysis, entrance control, time management, hardware leasing, software hosting, and more.
